Testimony of Crystal Davis

Good morning, my name is Crystal Davis. I am a former Hawk One officer, currently working for US Security Associates. I've been working in security since 1998. I worked for Unlimited Security from 2004-2005, and I worked for Hawk One for 5 years.

When Unlimited went bankrupt, they left owing me over $3,500, and it took me three years to get it back. Now, the same thing is happening with Hawk One, and we still haven't gotten our money. To be employed by contractors that are financially unstable and not investigated before they are awarded contracts ends up putting the financial burden on us, the employees.

When is the city going to start properly investigating these contractors before they are awarded the contracts? A bill needs to be passed to ensure strong oversight over contracting companies. What has now happened to us twice should never happen again.
